Obituary

Diana Neith Adams was born in Richmond, CA in their family home located on Jefferson Ave. to the proud parents of Arthur & Ernestine Adams on October 6, 1948. She was the only baby girl to her three brother's Curtis, Carl and Bernard Adams. Diana accepted Christ and was a member of Davis Chapel C.M.E. Church, where she attended with her family. She continued to come to church and various programs until her health prevented her to attend.

Diana also known as "DeDe or Di" attended local schools and graduated from Harry Ells High School. She married her high school sweetheart in April 1966, to the late John Henry "June Bug" Johnson, II in her parent's home. To this union three children were born, Charlotte, John and Lawanna . Later in life Diana was blessed with two more beautiful children who were all the joy of her life, Kahrluhs and KyOshia. Our mom was a "Walking & Driving Navigator

On Sunday, August 17, 2014, after waiting patiently and taking her last communion, Diana closed her eyes here on this earth and woke up in heaven looking at the loving face of God who welcomed her home. Sleep Mother

Sweet smile on your face as you sleep the pain away, Resting in God's arms now, although in the ground your body lay. We never would have imagined the end would be like this, your children comforting you. He needed another angel in the Heavenly choir and that's why you had to go. As you promised, you are still with us watching your children here below. Holding your hand, telling you not to worry was not an easy thing for us to do. And even in your weakest hour you tried to comfort us too, Caressing our face, and calming our soul as only a mother can soothe. You have always been there through the thick and the thin No matter what We've done, unconditionally your love never wavering. When we told you of the mistakes we made and all the times people saw us fall Fighting all life's battles, knowing it triumphantly you would win You simply nodded and gently replied 'so have we all'. The key to success is learning from the past Ensuring a brighter future is now the present task. A pillar of strength even until the end Pushing us to be the best that you know we can be Reminding us to keep the faith and allow God to lead us. Knowing it's through Christ that we can do all things And as He never makes a mistake we will come through victoriously. Finding relief in knowing we will see you again someday soon Remembering all you taught us as our soul we continue to groom Seeing the path you walked lead you, Momma, straight into victory. We will walk in footsteps you have walked before us. So as you sleep Momma, in the cradle of the Lord, We are reassured of God's promises in His Holy Word. We dream of the day when Heaven's gates open to receive us And with your smiling face and loving eyes, reunited once again we will be.

Thank You Momma ~ Charlotte, John, Lawanna, Kahrluhs & KyOshia
